Management's responsibility for the financial statements

Management is responsible for the preparation and fair presentation of these financial statements in accordance with International Financial Reporting Standards and for the preparation of an internal control system that the management considers necessary for the purpose of preparing the financial statements free of material misstatement, whether due to fraud or error.

Accountant's responsibility

Our responsibility is to arrive at a conclusion on these interim financial statements based on our review. We conducted our review in accordance with International Standards on Auditing. Those standards require that we comply with ethical requirements and plan and perform the audit to obtain reasonable assurance whether the financial statements are free from material misstatement.

The scope of the audit work is significantly lower than the scope of the audit conducted in accordance with International Standards on Auditing. Accordingly, the audit work does not enable us to obtain assurance about all significant matters that may be identified in the course of the audit. Therefore, we do not express an audit opinion.

We believe that the audit evidence we have obtained is sufficient and appropriate to provide a basis for our audit findings.

The Basis of Conservative Conclusion

We have not been supported by the bank and we have not been able to verify the balances.

Discretionary Conclusion

Except for a paragraph based on the above reserved conclusion and construction on our review, nothing has come to our attention that causes us to believe that the accompanying interim financial statements have not been prepared in all material respects in accordance with International Accounting Standard (IAS) 34.
