ASE Signs MOU with the University of Jordan

Announcement

June 18, 2019 02:55PM

The Amman Stock Exchange (ASE) signed MOU with the University of Jordan that aims to improve the cooperative activities in various academic, professional, scientific, research, training, cultural and developmental areas of mutual interest.

The ASE's Chairman of the Board of Directors Dr. Kamal Al-Qudah, and the President of the University of Jordan Dr. Abdel-Karim Al- Qudah, in the presence of Vice Chairman of ASE's Board of Directors Dr. Ashraf Al-Adwan, Acting CEO Mr. Bassam Abu Abbas and the Director of the Communications and Information Department Mr. Amjad Al-Qudah, and Dean of Business Faculty Fayez Haddad.

Regarding to the MOU, the university students will be training on the trading systems, conducting research projects, holding seminars and conferences besides exchanging publications, books, journals and scientific research results.

Also, the MOU gives the ASE the right to publish joint scientific research in the fields of research and publications on its website.

On the margin, the two parties exchanged memorial shields and took photos.

