

International Relations

The Arab, Regional and International Cooperation

From the establishment of the Amman Stock Exchange (ASE), it seeks to enhance the mutual corporation with the Arab and International Stock Exchanges, in this framework the ASE has signed Many Memorandums of Understanding (MOU) with a number of other Stock Exchanges, In addition for being an active member in several regional and international federations and organizations, and signing cooperation agreements with international organizations.

First: The ASE signed MOU with the following Stock Exchanges:

- Saudi Tadawul Group in 2023.
- The United Nations Global Compact network Jordan (UNGCCJ) in 2023.
- The United Nations Development Programme (UNDP) in 2023.
- The Middle East Investor Relations Association (MEIRA) in 2017.
- Egyptian Exchange in 2017 and 2009.
- Sustainability Excellence Management Consulting Ltd. in 2017
- Luxembourg in 2016.
- Nasdaq Dubai Stock Exchange in 2016.

- Bucharest Stock Exchange in 2009.
- Cyprus Stock Exchange in 2007.
- Thessaloniki Stock Exchange Center in 2003.

Currently, the ASE is working on signing other MOU with other financial markets and Stock Exchanges.

Second: Cooperation Agreements:

- International Finance Corporation (IFC) in 2022.

Third: The ASE is an active member in many Regional and International Federations and Organizations, as follows:

- Arab Federation of Capital Market (AFCM).
- World Federation of Exchanges (WFE).
- Extensible Business Reporting Language International (XBRL).
- The Federation of Euro-Asian Stock Exchanges (FEAS).
- United Nations Sustainable Stock Exchanges (SSE) initiative.
- The Software and Information Industry Association (SIIA).
- The Organization of Islamic Cooperation (OIC).

Source URI:

<http://www.ase.com.jo/en/print/pdf/node/77>