

Amending the Trading Directives at the Amman Stock Exchange.

February 26, 2015

The Jordan Securities Commission (JSC) has approved the amendments of the Trading Directives at the ASE that were entered to facilitate the procedures followed by brokerage firms in dealing for their custodian's clients. According to this amendments, the broker may execute trading transaction in favor of custodian's client upon authorizations issued by Foreign Broker or Investment Manager provided that, there is a trading in securities agreement between the Broker and the Foreign Broker or the Investment Manager.

Note that the mentioned amendments became effective as of February 3rd, 2015.
